CELEBRATING OUR LIVES TOGETHER

This morning, we welcome Karl McKinney to our pulpit. Karl has served as a pastor since 1983. About ten months into the Covid-19 pandemic, he began to deliver packages through a transportation logistics company. He now gets paid to deliver packages to waiting customers, and exercises 40 hours a week in the process! Kellie and he live in Landisville, PA. They spend a lot of time with their four daughters and three sons, all of whom are now adults! They have two son-in-laws, one daughter-in-law and six grandchildren.

Church Board is meeting Thursday, May 20, and will review the COVID Guidelines at that meeting. A survey will not be put out, but if you have any important thoughts or questions, please contact Bob Geissinger or Pastor Nathan.

New Member & Covenant Sunday will be outside next Sunday, May 23. We will meet in the pavilion at 9:00 am for an intro to baptism and Miles Longacre's testimony. At 9:30 we will meet at the creek by the Schantz's for the baptism followed by our covenant and communion service in the pavilion at 10:15. We will not have a livestream that day. A Fellowship Meal will follow our service. Please bring a main dish and a salad or desert to share. Contact Shirley Geissinger for more info about the Fellowship Meal.

What has sustained you over the past year? In what ways has God met with you or have you met with God? There will be an open mic sharing on this theme Sunday, May 30.

We are in need of additional people to join the A/V Team. Please contact Ken Longacre if you are interested or have any questions.
